Sir

My letter to which you refer is of so old a date, that I have no recollections of its contents.

In this County there are two Monuments, well worthy of protection -

One is Edins Hall, mentioned in the Schedule to the Act, of which full accounts have lately been published; - and if you wish it, I can send to you the name of the publication.

The other is a pillar of stone, on a farm called "Cropstie" in the parish of Secker. When I last saw it, it was exposed to all treatment by the children of Farm Cottage, adjoining,

I then applied to the Marquis of Mansfield on whose property it is, for a strong iron railing to be put round it. He was then in his last illness, & I understood some directions to his factor to have a railing put up.

This was about 10 years ago.
I have not seen or heard of it since except that it remains in the same unprotected state.

I do not suppose that the present Marquis knows any thing of it.

If you would have the kindness to explain to me what your powers are, under the Act, and what further information you require, I will be happy to supply it, if I can.

I remain, Sir,

Your obed^t serv^t.

Sir

Under the Act for Ancient Monuments Protection recently passed, it is stated that Ancient Monuments in Scotland may be reported on to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings as deserving of their Guardianship.

Have the goodness to inform me to what office, a proposal has to be sent with that view as in the County of which I am Convener, there are several ancient monuments of that character

I remain Sir
