My dear Pitt-Rivers

You will have heard from Mr Hope that the Memorial as to models was sent in some little time ago and that an acknowledgement of it has been received. I have not come across Mr W. H. Smith since it was delivered - I am much of your opinion as to the practical difficulties that may arise

if the Ancient Monuments Act were extended to medieval buildings - There are however certain cases in which the Government might well be called on to intervene - There will be no harm in trying to get a declaration of opinion on the matter out of the Treasury Shall you be in London on the 23^d.

Yours most truly
John Evans
