My dear Joe.

I will make out a list of some few monuments
which I think are of equal if not greater importance than many of those included in the Schedule, and will send it  for before long.

I am sorry I cannot say much for the act,
but I dare say it is as much as at present
could be obtained from Parliament.

All permissive Acts
are in my opinion

delusions, and I doubt if many people will place monuments
in the hands of the Commissioners.
