Sir

Ancient Buildings at Lindisfarne

These ruined buildings are on the list of buildings recommended by the Royal Institute of British Architects as suitable subjects for study and for that purpose I propose visiting them during the course of next week - and believing the buildings to come under your supervision, before proceeding there, I beg to request your permission to make measured drawings and sketches of them. Such drawings and sketches will be for Architectural purposes only.

I shall be glad to give any further information you may desire, and trusting that my request may be granted I have the honour to remain

Sir

Yours respectfully
John C. I. Murray
