

Camps they are not to go beyond than some 200 feet really further than that from the corner of the camp.

Dear General Pitt Rivers

I have not seen
Lubbock since I met you at the Museum.

I don't think I shall see him before Thursday and the matter is a little too delicate to make it the subject of a correspondence with him. Believe me

Yours very truly

As regards the Cursons at Stonehenge we got the Rail-road diverted to the north & so that it is to go almost entirely in a cutting - As regards Durrington Walls I arranged that the line is to go quite clear of the walls between them and the river; but where one wall runs down to the river the railway is to arch it & not interfere with it. At Verisians
