Dear Sir,

I shall be glad to have your views on this point before proceeding further

Yours faithfully

Dear General Pitt Rivers

I wish in referring to the Act relating to
"Ancient Monuments"
Protection that no
Order in Council can come into force until it has been by both days before both Houses of Parliament during the Session. In these circumstances do you not think it would be better to defer taking any proceedings to Schedule in an Order those cases which are already before us until you have sent in the others which you told me the other day you proposed to submit

very shortly?

Otherwise it seems to me that the First Commission will have to obtain two Orders in Council during
