My dear Pitt Rivers

Here is Lord

Lauderdale's reply -

He has only just intended to his property & has

unintentionally is dis-

inclined to part

with anything until he knows all the pros & cons - However

He is a straightforward John a generally
very reasonable.

He has bought 44
pounds worth
cloth to you, and I don't think you are wanted some day, then you will probably find

You can bring him to your view.
Yours truly
Wm. W.

rather than discuss it
much further.
We move into 44 Jervis Place on the 16th.

Yours sincerely
Lauderdale

My dear Laurinder
I have 500 from the new club of 30.
Before doing any thing
further in regard to the "Ancient Memorials"
business I shd. like to see

The plan referred to and this I wish to share I am not at Lander.
At present it strikes me that child I aim nothing by the transfer I do also.
- Why use something. And I wish see.

Stanley never uttered a word respecting the first.

- Nature Trust. I wished like them on the day I called. She is exceedingly wise. I have had no answer yet I am there.
- You think of directing
D. I to send him a reminder. I myself have my strong views on this article. but I think it best to let it be done through the usual
