Conditions or Terms on which Messages will be forwarded by above Company.

The public are informed that Messages will only be received conditionally that no responsibility attaches to the Administration for delay in transmission or delivery, or for non-transmission or non-delivery, or from mistakes from whatever cause they may arise. In order to provide against errors of transmission of important Messages by the BRITISH AUSTRALASIAN TELEGRAPH COMPANY (LIMITED), every Message of consequence ought to be REPEATED by being sent back from the Station at which it is to be received to the Station from which it is originally sent. One-half the usual price for transmission will be charged for repeating the Message.

The Administration will not be responsible in any case for delays arising from interruption in the working of the Telegraphs.

GEORGE LYONS, Secretary.
