My dear Spencer

In a letter just received from Siebel there is the following passage which I have much pleasure in submitting to your consideration together with the map referred to.
 If you will not mind putting down your views I shall have much pleasure in presenting them to Siebel and indeed that gives me the opportunity to say to him what I have been waiting for some opportunity to say.

"A mutilation of names of places + + + proves how necessary it is that we should be careful as to the pronunciation, as well as to the orthography + +. For instance Koppuramanna has been turned round out of Kapara-mara from which means a place where the surrounding Wishes met to consult and carry on further + + + + Indeed I am in difficulty in endeavouring to recognise the tribal names placed in my map in those given in the Spencer-Green work.

Yours faithfully
