

24
P.S. I will meet you tomorrow
at 4 pm
at the place appointed —
Credit office
17/5/00

My dear Spencer

Kind telephone me tomorrow morning where I shall find Mr Roberts of 250 W. the Public Library tomorrow at 11 am.

I have read your note on literature and shall read it again. There are several material points made by you with which I quite agree and some others which I should like to discuss.

 He might do this effectively when I am able to send you my chapter in intension.

At present I am at work on the Anticipation case studies.

It will take some time and I expect will divide itself into two parts. (1) The Eastern type of Ceremony (2) The Western type eg, through the Dore & other kindred books. I do not know how long it will take me - but at present it looks like 150 pages of fscap.

Yours faithfully

Christians