

at Linden
Wellington, Somerset.

3.

replied
26.2.99.

THE MUSEUM HOUSE,
OXFORD.

Jan 4 1899

Dear Spencer

I have I written or spoken to you about Miss Horvath's Australian Folk Tales? Horvath wished them sent back by you if I could not find a publishes. Macmillan refused the MS, so I sent it to Alce Nott from whom I have a letter finding fault with its form, refusing to publish it himself, & holding out some rather vague hope of the Folklore Society taking it up after a time. If I was sure of 3

your present address I would send you Notts letter & get him to forward the MS to you. I almost think that the best way would be to send the MS back to A. Nott, and let him have Notts letter also. What do you think? Did I

Express to you my amusement at ~~hearing~~ ~~Heizer~~ in the character of a totemconvert preaching a totem-doctrine absolutely contradictory & ignoring that which he has been successfully circulating for years!

Yours truly
C. D. Tylor