Dear Professor Spencer,

you will remember that when I met you in Oxford with one of the Echidna. You kindly promised to let me have some

I did not know that you had left for Melbourne until recently. It was a great pleasure to me that if you

I am sure to get it, so I suppose we may be seeing you back before long.
I wish the hands of the Schoot.
I wish the hands of the Schoot.
I wish the hands of the Schoot.

If I can get the hands of the Schoot, I shall communicate with the hands of the Schoot.
If I can get the hands of the Schoot, I shall communicate with the hands of the Schoot.
