My dear Spencer

I wrote to you a week ago - couldn't remember your address, & only got it & posted the letter last night.

I was so very disappointed to miss you at Oxford - & was very X with you for not coming, as you promised to stay with me for a week, & work at your literature in the Radcliffe.

 Now I must close I am afraid, as they are much away? It was calling for me - Goodbye ill fortune -

& good luck - bon voyage for Australia - I am extremely sorry to have seen so little of you Yours very sincerely

Jilbert Bourne
