Dear Professor.

The North Mail, and Libber with your letter have just arrived so that I haven't time for more than a hurried scrawl. Libber is looking splendid and evidently bursting with news and information of all sorts! He says he hasn't given himself away to sticking, and does not intend to give that gentleman any more of his notes or photos - for publication at all events.

Get the Lorditcha. If you think it is worth publishing
