Dear Professor,
By last mail I sent a short scrawl saying that you could do what you liked with the Wetathurta notice, but apparently it has not reached. As I put it in the Road bag at the last moment it may have been crushed out of recognition like some of bowler's egg parcels! So I wired you as directed.

You must be having a fearful time of it with the University
Sincerely
Scarier

exam's Horn Book, and other works and wonder how on earth you stand the strain. By George, the thought of what it must be almost makes my hair stand on end, and recognizes that one has something to be thankful for even on a retired and breezy Isle.

I am glad that Horn has at last given evidence of his existence - or rather that of his pockets - and I see his emergence from the shell well to be permanent - The true prospect of the book's appearance may stimulate him a little, and no doubt the financial prosperity of the W. A.
Octagon Syndicate will tend to put him in a better mood.

Our folks seem to have been nearly as demonstrated in welcoming the descendant of Edward III as your people were in receiving the offspring of the Lion de Brecci, and happens the receipt were both about equally wearing of the Tomfoolery - Lyons will have to help up the first democracy Glen Hasty asserted that he had not seen anything more to be doing, but I have no doubt.

Probably, the Privilege of dismemberment some unfortunate devil of a Latin was dangled as a bait, and the Pontiff is only human.

He was rather subdued while here and only defused the "Nation Review" in a negative sort of fashion, by saying that the other Parliaments were worse. Once or twice he quoted a few paragraphs from the "Advertiser", and finished up with a Peroration from Specker

Speeches from the Dock, but he eached Argument. - Said I didn't understand the Subject! I fancy, tho' that it is beginning to dawn upon him that the gifts of Street Corner oratory, and Supreme Self Confidence, so plentiful amongst our Politicians, would be better for the possession of a little Capacity.

I'm very much afraid that he thinks of invading Parliament, and only hopes that the Lord will keep him out of the Treasury. If he ever gets there it will be "all over with us."

The latest bold and comprehensive Scheme is the opening up of a Stock route from Oronodatta via the Muagrave's Rangers to N.A. The gentleman charged with the performance of the work is Mr. S. Stübbe of Ornithorhynchus and Franco-Prussian War Jamb, So Carr-Boyd will have to look to his laurels.

The weather favours of the nether regions just at present, and our waters are drying rapidly. I'm very much afraid that we are in for another drought - the fourth in five years! The worst of it is our drinking water is not particularly nice now, and it won't, like wine, improve with age.

Owing to the outside waters all being dry the tin is not a very interesting one this time, but of Jupiter. I will only spend himself a little I hope to get plenty of Notocler and Wipeels this summer. The products I am sending are called Inda-lara and they are similar in their habits to H. Termites. I am trying to get the lizard which the doctor carries in his fiddle when accompanying the Cordaichia. It is called Ind-Kowina.

Foot deer did rather suddenly in Adelaide from diabetes just as he was thinking of starting back to Hamurta. We will call him very much as he was an old identity and a thorough good fellow.

Liber has left for West Australia, where he has received an appointment in the Tel Dept. So that I am all alone in my glory. I suppose they will send someone in his place if the Colony doesn't file its schedule at the end of the present quarter. Wishing you a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.

Yours truly
 F. N. Cyprip
