

my friend
June 2. 03

15.

BUCKHOLD HILL,
FANGBOURNE,
BERKS.

2 April
1903

My dear Sir,

Thank you very much for your letter.

May I trespass again on your kindness?

- (1) As to the "preparation" of the Australian bride - have you come across any native explanation of it?
- (2) Do you know any facts that might point to a previous custom of incest between father & daughter? Are there any special rules of avoidance between father & daughter? or any thing to show previous strained relations between father & son due to jealousy

about use of the daughter of a family (Mr Atkinson's Theory, about to be published by Mr Lang)?

Thank you for your notes in criticism. As to fear of danger from the first act of sexual intercourse, I suppose it to be sub-conscious.

I'm very kind I've to ask Mr Rolt to send his paper. I look forward to your new book.

Yours sincerely
A. E. Crawley.