

Procter Lacey
13. 9. 93

My dear Professor

It was a very pleasant surprise when the mail arrived last week & found in it a parcel of books from you and also four photos which no doubt are excellent likenesses and are very pleasant indeed to receive it.

Class & Throats books are a source of great pleasure & the latter has been the most fruitful of his much byproducts the different series to read on evenings sitting on the veranda, he is still making great progress with his lessons & also music of which he seems very fond & he heard you were at Oodnatta on your way to Lake

I hope much hope you receive great and enjoyable trip no doubt you have been glad to get away from so much toil & worry of the City.

We have heard Mr. Little has this year our his successful inspection trip and returned his visit very much as you know he will receive many visitors that we can really appreciate. Therefore you can understand the local it-is to us to receive some one so visible to local the industry of our community life. On the other hand we have numerous have also given the distance which he has, all of the same opinion as to its worthiness, so that your prognosis has not far wrong. I have really no more to write to give you but that you have your success as many thousands as you like to pick from the new. We have visited & thanks from Clara & Lucille & Resident regards from Mr. Rice & Mr. Jones & family Yours sincerely
 J. J. Rice.