 Kubra just brought me in 4 half grown Phascogales which I have packed in our old tin once more as they may be handy for distribution. 5th Nov 89 to your friends - if not fully developed, their teeth are - they can bite like Hell. Hope they will reach you safely; the crustaceans was very plain before I choked them. C.C.C.

Dear Professor

Your welcome letter to hand & I was glad the jar reached you in safety. I was always thinking that I had wasted spirits on some rubbish again. The tin on return trip got a regular smashing up. one jar in fragments & a mark on wrapper. Recd in this State 9. P.O. I fancy the operators take a delight in thumping that stamp on tin. Deer talks of leaving Town about 8th inst and is I hear in a bad way unless some new stuff re-cently discovered in England & which they have sent for does him good, I am afraid it is only a matter of time with the old Chap.

I have heard but little of Gillen's return beyond that he is rather quiet & developing temperance notions but wh-ether this is the result of a surfeit at the Banquets in his honour or whether he con-siders it more consistent with his dignity I cannot say - a short sojourn in charge of his Monday Cage at Alice St^d should restore him to his right tone once more.
I don't intend to go in atmas if I can help it so won't be able to administer any tonic personally. Palmer is now vernacular which seems a knight of the cleaver at ¹⁹⁶ almost of another age.

Darwin and hopes by strict I suppose this will reach attention to business, fact etc you while in the misery of to gain a fair share etc he going through Coan Papers only look too head of his sheep & if you are busy I will not & what's going over. Glad to hear presume to expect a letter The Horn Book is at last going but have the honour to inform to the Press but evidently your you that I need on our mail labours won't be over for some will only be a six weekly time & as you say it is a pity one for the future I think as a few chapters can't be added there is only one train per on the relation of your experiences for night to Codnadatta with the other members during now. Keeping very dry here & compilation. I have been at a plague of Peasants & blow flies Home most of this month for a around which take a lot of fight wonder & for once in a way quite-ing. With best wishes & kindest exhausted my reading matter regards Believe me finally getting down to Reverin on "King's Treasuries" & "Queen's Garden's" but first he writes in a
