Dear Professor

I sent you two cases by Camels on 13th Dec^r, hope they reach you in time to open before starting up. No time to write you, came here post haste immediately mail got up on account of one man killing another in Sargeant's store by a blow with a rifle - had I was dinner under a tree this side of Crown point en route for C.W. Byrne & self got here last night & Inquest today - no forms or anything but work & heat - details in my next. Am nearly done up. Regards.

C.W.
