My dear Spence

Can miles today "It is all right old man I have made all arrangements about sending the horses & trap away, I have notified the railway that trucks will be wanted & I think they will be ready.

I went out just now with the 4 horses, harness & buggy & drove round the park with all the & Brutton Jones Gool & Valmas.

The horses are old & slow but they are staunch & good to do not think you could have done

60
better if you had searched La.
I have arranged to have each horse carefully shod & the shoes will contain on them in the hocks (which is essential). These cases has two sets of extra shoes packed in the box of the buggy. Steve had the corn put in the buggy. This is the same trap which Lord Karlows drove when he came thro with Harding & you cannot believe it, I think. It is the one you saw together when we drove to the Lenny yard & has been properly dressed up. In addition to these is has spoils of Steve had hobbles, harness, stitching tools, nails copper rivets, hemp balls, copper wire & every little article that may be required to mend your repairs on the road. "But he an old trick. Steve you'd write him a line. Charles Navin is chief partner with the Lurons people to get duty on medicine that technical - both you and ourselves you have not refused to help my partner in so you can read my letters? I am convinced that we must have a second buggy & I

- in the shape of any reply from you - has decided to buy one it one. I will have a chat with fox about this business - if he thinks it - suitable with the situation of a hotel I may take it. It is at myself, cheap. I have not a again that I fancy I understand but the treatment in a situation of me it more of my Countryman does not remain your school. but characteristically longish text & I about against the race into place.

deem it an honor to belong. In some things you wish all your ability & culture are as narrow as some of your own provincial politicians - You English assume an insistent racial superiority which is very galling & which more than any thing else retards the political assimilation of the two races - Your <sup>intelligent</sup> colonialism with which you force down the the throat of your things even in these days of toleration is a studied insult - to a large & loyal section of your people & It is an absurdity that only the English people are capable of. Your papers praise of the loyalty of the Irish in the face of this oath which ridicules & pour the most contempt upon all such they hold in most sacred who but a fool ~~is~~ could expect loyalty. You know my attitude in religious matters yet this oath has made me square like a horn on a pin & I shall be glad indeed if during the next few years a second Samuel arises to whips you with Scorpions as the great one who is dead - & who was killed not by the Irish but by that hybrid monster the non-conformist conscience of England - did Will fight this matter out in the long bare blood red man membrane keep your hair on & try to cultivate a finer spirit!

 I am noting your Command well, as far as possible, and excuse them in advance.

Nothing is to be proclaimed on Wednesday with considerable pomp & thus to forego with you may wish a day <sup>shorter</sup> I should be able to get

Everything may with James
 It is an awful day
 I am feeling out of control Note I would have a good deal in the Standings etc starting as it is scarce to the human eye to the last minute - that people scratch old cars - and are from a great deal of the

All end up folding some as well by survey parties
