

Moonta -

2nd June 1902
10 pm

My dear Spencer

Byrne says that he has been offered £18 for horses including re I quite expected them to value at least £25 but as the country is in a state of drought horses unsold I should not had better sell even at this ridiculous figure. If we hang on the Meddies may die of starvation or fall into the hands of local horse thieves Mine ^{me} at once on receipt of this Yrs sincerely
J.H.