

- At 1.30 I dined with Sir Way at Montefiore & stayed there until 3.30 he is a perfect host general & ready & I am soon felt at home. The house a beautiful one, is crammed with art treasures worth thousands of pounds - genuine Schlipendals furniture also old English making any gallery an extraordinary collection which upon my suggestion the old boy is going to have catalogued! He is full of admiration for our work says it must be recognized by the Home Authorities & the Lord Tennison are anxious to move in that direction We have earned the "Order of Merit" lately established by the King. This all so easily but more now feel I can't write after this hearty shove!

With you most here

W. E. G.
