

Moonla

Nov 8th 1902

My dear Spencer

It was nothing short of a Crime - from a Sporting point of view - to neglect backing Chappie's extraordinary ones. I can imagine Charles Warrens fine disgust when he heard of such an interpretation of Providence being thrown away.
Had I shown it in time I should have put a pound or two on the Victory. Please tell Chappie so I remember you writing to me about Crawleys book months ago but I thought you had then only read some notices of it in the Scientific Journals. Since last writing I bought a second hand copy of the book for 8/-.

new. In one place Crowley says "In one detail that of the so called Gas Prime notes Reformed is wrong but so are Spencer's "Gullies" "What does" Washington's "Gullies" "What does" Crowley's theory about the dangers of equal interests at all required to labor. "What does" belong to all but many factors Have you seen "Notes of Dele 2nd if not get it at once, it contains D Haddon's address. It is the Anthrop. Section of the British Assoc at Belfast. The report is referred to with compliments. I should like to know what your thought of his theory is. The original of the volume also any other remarks you can find time to make on the subject - A friend of mine at Westbury who has written and written me. The question of the matter being a very fine one, and I am sure of the subject being to it is well known throughout the I am not inclined to accept Haddon's "Suggestion" as applying to the matter I am sure Haddon is entirely right in regard to the Corcoran's comparison which a number of writers have been Mr. J. Haddon was here yesterday preaching at the Methodist Church Some friends and I spent the evening with him. He is a most enjoyable man. He is much interested in our movement and I hope that of us may be provided with facilities to continue

He talked freely on Federal matters & of The Federal Member Kunze is somewhat better but he is suffering from disease & under the most favorable conditions can only live a few years. He is by far the strongest man in Federal Ministry but should have been Attorney Genl. - Barlow is a lazy hard drinking fraud who will never again get into a Ministry even in a Subordinate position unless his future was guaranteed unless he is appointed to the Chief Justiceship or some other permanent job. Thomas is a big man intellectually, & tireless worker who is sacrificing 3 or 4000 a year for political honest change but without Reid's influence in handling crowds. Lyman is in politics, merely a destructas Critic, Inquisitorly desolator of constructive capacity, so much so that he notoriously cannot draft a clause without muddling ~~it~~ it. I am sure no fortune for him in politics. He is a fascinating personality a brilliant dreamer of dreams but only a dreamer, an unground lawyer who should never have been Attorney General it is doubtful if some of his bills will stand in the Courts. Lopez a dangerous politician delinquent, miscreant, evasive to a degree, with a towering ambition which aims at the Premiership Very bad thing for Louisiana call if his ambition realized Turner would stand for a Kingston undoubtedly strong as man in the team his influence strong on our side of economy. When it is proposed in Cabinet that Thurston should stand then ordinary Parliamentary course of 1860 or 61 in addition to Ministerial taking Kingston might resign I think finally and would resign sooner than take it - Parliament arranged as you comprised by plenty of members in the hands of the home who hold the majority.

Non-intervention for ten long years Victorians may take but they will now endanger their fiscal policy by voting against Bismarck and this a hundred other things he said. He has found a very low opinion of Victoria Managers and is on the side of the Ministry that against the says. It was a great admission for Legation asked for.

I had a few lines from Ambrose of Norman last week his wife has been dangerously ill but is now convalescent. Biss is now on one of the Crofton papers. I am sending you two copies of the Norman Shunder, the Change of Editors does not appear to have inspired the paper from any point of view A striking says old Kelly & the Scottish families around the to they have not forgotten I always think of Norman with pleasure, and I am sure will Time there - old Italy was a new and very source of interest Roth has been ruffling the food low water - see paragraph in blown etc. I am lecturing at Kadma on Thursday night the 13th in aid of local Institute - a big town but I doubt if there was to much of an audience, weather too hot for lectures -

Poor Warren must have had a disastrous time at the races

I hope he looked you up Method regard to Mrs. Spencer Did she go to the Cup?

I am rather curious to know if you met Way in Melbourne his Methodist friends are shocked at his going over for the railway commission Yrs ever
JH