My dear Spencer

 fully on Sunday. Mrs

CA notes the tribal name comes from without No one in Carl's band does the tribal name Aranta until I dug it up. The Juritja do not call themselves Juritja also but a term meaning Northern men & the Southern Aranta often speak of themselves as Antidwinyga. The Elpira & Blamatjira are really one tribe or at any rate the Aranta always apply the term Elpira to them they are also so mixed up with the Ilcama that it is difficult to tell where one ends & the other begins. I will fix up map as nearly as I can & post it to you on Sunday. Jackson was an ordinary bushman professor & stockman. The best man in the that in certain times special individuals are selected for submission, it is just Tommy's old keeps at the place made a similar statement & he was published. I investigated it on the spot & found that there was not a particle of truth in it. Submission is I know from personal inquiry the statement you allude to in Gason's pamphlet.

I got a few notes at the Mission Station, not much, the best old man was away & I was awfully busy attending to mission matters. Some additional notes about Buddha & his sons - Strange they call the Sun Ikintu just as the Juritja do - They do not know the meaning of Marungga the tribal name. A week's camp with the old fellows might result in some fairly good stuff. Pass away. Awfully hot & I am about played out. Sleazeb Should look really well.

I don't think you need have a scrap of anxiety about the Mara & Anala business. The solution is correct I am sure of it. I certainly did indicate to George rather that the notes given to me on the first day at the River were incorrect & this error is probably the cause of all our trouble -

Anala is derived from Arodeta mouth & Anala loudly or noisily. I am inclined to think that in all the
