I see by today's paper that Mr Mord Moss Chairman of the Coppertop Coy moved that the assets be sold the Coy wound up but an amendment was carried by a Mr Jacobs & the property is to be leased for another six months! Oh Lorde Lorde - and if they give Joss my file Stricker heard I should like to see his letter when you have done with them. The money has been worrying me fervently since my return & I don't think it will be long before I follow old Miss Schubs example.

The Railway Smith Inquiry begins tomorrow & unless the Chairman is firm as a rock it will develop into a huge scandal.
I heard today from a friend of Watson that he expects to have to leave the State over his man's sale of over 1000 horses averaged nearly £12:0:0. The
