

Albion

7th Sept 1903

My dear Spicer

Reggie Bookeller at Adelaide asks if I will supply him with say a dozen photos of Ceremonies to the C.A. Bleds for reproduction on postcards. He has the sole right of producing cards by the Collotype process (see samples posted to Duchon & Crappie) & is anxious to include a small color series.

He is prepared to purchase right of reproducing the prints for postcard purposes & asks me to state terms. What do you think? I hardly like the idea but if he is prepared to pay a substantial figure it might be worthy consideration.

Your note to hand today glad to hear they have made you President of the Professional Board it is distinctly an honour & I feel that I get some of the reflected glory. They find this President of the Professional Board has a fine satisfying sound. The enemy has declared an armistice & has withdrawn his forces but the infernal crew hangs to me & my ears are still affected so much so that I am going to see the D. B. soon. My ear is nearly deaf.

They have had Conley under the "High Frequency Rays" but so far no improvement in symptoms he says "You lie down on a lounge & catch hold of two handles & feel nothing but if anyone touches you anywhere sparks fly from you & you feel a slight burning sensation.
If you touched my coat or trousers a spark would fly & if you touched my hair it sparkles &

