My dear Spencer,

I have just got a letter from the Museum containing a copy of "Nature Containing."

A copy of "Nature Containing."

The copy of "Nature Containing."

Engraved Paper has not come to hand, place for the moment. The sketch of the design I made is not in my possession to procure a copy of,

but I don't remember sending it in this last letter. I cannot find it amongst my prints here. I am doubtful whether

I can get another picture as the red smooth man who drew this painting has cleared out again - this design on the wood block which was badly drawn is partly degree by the successful man, but you have a copy of the design on the block - let me know by return of your mail another picture or if you require regards of this one. I have sent all the negatives you asked for & in addition one of a woman carrying Feline, from which I took Poor old Humply! I am very sorry indeed about the death of his boy; he was a fine, healthy little fellow. This death will be a great sorrow both to his father and mother. I have heard of it from your letter. He tells me that one of his daughters is in a bad way, and some disease threatens. They do not expect her to live long. I hope they will. As you say, it is a real misfortune. I feel that all the poor little Balfours will soon be glad to see the day, when they see one another again. As far as I know, he has just carried his brother out by appearing upon the scene in two lovely plays for the first time. There are several parts in Chaucer, but there are no other parts that I know of. However, some of my Chaucer are very fine of my Chaucer and having read most of them down country with other things. I thank you for writing months ago. The weather is very rainy and very damp.

As to how these movements are made—for we find upon your present request in a separate column, but what a large of more information, it is beginning to happen upon me that we have not much more to learn in this locality of Rathoree worked only the small and has in a number of cases a thoroughbred fields; I beg your pardon, but have you any that make me three times more no time trying to explain. The information merely as printed. I cannot suggest many and addition to your present letters. It is good to have in every expression done. There as I think not, or—some occur which you hope will have no effect of course you can explain yourself. Whether there will be found for a long time, and hard years become important more than these people were at one time, most numerous; I am of course believe that they have degenerated morally to such that their numbers have been decreased. The introduction of the people from other sides, whether from a north or South, I cannot say of what a day philomel. in at once upon his formation did cease among these four or five years prior to the effect of the thermometer there is not the

that of a shadow of an attempt to and could their peculiar customs the report spread; I the climate throughout the settlement would be only a regulation of a few years ago. And I think that with the introduction of this practice the decay of the race began. I mentioned of this story to explain the peculiarities with more emphasis - the young savages of the South anyone can see very numinous to how after I replied I could see what you were aiming at a moralizing that I should write in for them. The letter from the blacks below not being so much below as the same spirit. That the Christian idea is the mind even more thing that would never have demanded upon any mediately mind and hence made one very careful inquiry. Fortunately there were a large number of blacks here. But I can find no traces of the marks upon the require - the face of man is never eaten under any circumstances then bleeding of a man of former borders (3)

...other ground on a special occasion - the blood of any man - quite irrespective of the ...consideration, as is done on other occasions as before stated - the only occasion which ...may be called a special occasion when the
...to a certain extent in giving it to the ...King's telling me that he could not make a distinction of his...
I have been very busy with the arrangements for the publication of the book, and I have found it a most exhausting task. The publishers have been very cooperative, and we are making good progress. I am looking forward to the launch of the book, which I am confident will be a great success.

I have also been working on the second volume, and I am nearly ready to submit it to the publishers. I have been fortunate to have a team of dedicated assistants who have been working tirelessly to ensure that the book meets the highest standards.

As for the future, I am planning to continue my research and writing. I hope that the success of this book will enable me to work on other projects that I have been wanting to undertake.

Regarding the travels, I am planning to visit various locations, and I will be sharing my experiences through my writings. I am looking forward to the journey and the opportunities it will bring.

I have been receiving positive feedback from readers, and I am grateful for their support. I hope that my work will continue to inspire and entertain readers. Thank you for your continued support.
[Handwritten text not legible]
[Handwritten text not legible]
I tried to bring about a reconciliation between the man and woman but I am afraid it did not come to anything. The habit of faulting affairs is broken off by you quite. I am surprised to hear that when the old woman got to Adelaide she went to the hotel very kindly, went in for a quiet drink since in fact she feels much better now than she ever was before. She has become very kind and loving. The rainiest woman I've ever had. I'm so glad she has come to live with me. Poor fellow, he's not happy, but she's made up for it. She's asked him to return home but he's not sure if he can face the violence of it. I'm doubtful whether he will return. I mean to keep an eye on him. When he goes, as if the dream ever becomes a reality, I must be ready to take his path. My wife was shocked at hearing the old woman thinking she could venture to take liquor here since everything has been arranged. She came to me with a story of her own and asked me if I could do anything for her. I was not sure if she could face the situation. She has been crying for the last few years of her life. I feel that I have done the right thing.
...MEDRAWH. Has returned much frequented by this holiday and decorated with a pair of features.
Made up and quite a professional appearance for a reason that it is Conner shopping. Habits occupy a long, broad, folding in his usual style in the fashion. Shape in very fancy. As return to anthropophy. I have never heard of a man having a peculiar relationship to an animal other than his son. When you say... I suppose that they have no idea that they are specially related to their common animal or plant.
I cannot for the life of me and understand what you mean because you know so well and do not that they recognize or special relationship with the suffering animal or plant. It is becoming this relationship that they must not stand and nature the sufferer. They are not... appear to stand in need of or to move to, you think into the animal or plant form. You cannot feel that they have any idea of the sufferer animal or plant feeling. But then are you that, as you say, it lives as if some third animal and as the soul of the animal has by some mechanism the sufferer they must stop the supply.
If they eat too freely, they would affect the animal.
They are full of a sense of sympathy for those better animal and or so they pass if they would...
"Too sorry if they eat much - there is a deeply rooted feeling that it is not good to eat much that some calamity must happen to them. They did no further than this there in the kind farmers' sense of food, that in the bringing about of diminished happiness. We are not quite on the road here - I have no time to help on, and am now in the city. Andrew Lang's remark's quoted by you make me shudder to think that perhaps be is referring to a coming war by someone else. I could not share much of a wild climate of the kind if in some place. It is just possible that the Aborigines society is here and that people bounding on other societies things no ones could do much miles. Scientific gardener. I am sure I could not. Of our that northern hops come off. I think the Chiliaga development will be the most interesting. Here no one can ask the real boundaries of Chiliaga. Land and to the north, some other mores. I see all these to the north, some other names. I see that their limitations and the southern. I carry that their limits were missionary. I would go much to see the stones or the main. The Missionary route of course indicates the stones. At their ancient beliefs. This would naturally show the restrictions.
of the diggins. I'm afraid if you've got an arrange more the White Jacky didn't mind, after all, they for some conversation. I asked the clergyman for charge against our premises, etc. I shall never for a look of superb, horror ruffled which appeared upon the face of Mr. Trenchard at the moments where I desired him not to say anything against premises, elsewhere to comin out much with whom I was talking. My wife takes a great interest in the Cruising, she draws my attention to the letter she is quite concerned. I don't see one should get hold of them, I send them out before our bread promised. I hope the trip to Sydney did you good although I don't expect you would allow yourself much rest. I don't like to hear that you are feeling stale because I know that before you would admit as much your would be really ill. I shall drop and perhaps a line to let him to know a fatherly eye upon you, that progress of mine days need made one feel all you try to do, how certain it doesn't matter a scrap. about sending the copies of what you have written every week, don't forget you have because to write it out a fortnight now. It is done now. The body and from the country where we are standard to our Grandfather lived in the Charlotte Arms. We must have to be suspended within a week or two.
Mr. J. Pluviose or ?

To poor men at Charlotte Notice are dying of the crews. The crops are so poor and to be almost unendurable. sess your life has a depth in politics through these crops they will not fill.

I should like you to be here unglad that you had a time with the crops. someone has half killed everyone I should have held on to get you back. I have been very well.

I have seen you twice since we have talked and I spent the evening one with the garden.

Of you I situated and on some occasion in a tree with the old

I think of our times and how spirited the old

No one ground much to the leagues of some

I have been visited and I thought much of which has gone into the adyacent camp.

I am cut off by the rain. I was to leave with the Round you had better be in readiness to be able to go if not go, without reason. I might be able to feel the bug dictating this. I am sending photo prints in a quirt and jackie nice and bachelor's

If you have any news come in today that a lot of Alphonse ladders are bringing me in Churriers.
And other things, in a parcel of Undinilla coming home today is some Mount Hay also some rare quahga seeds to a great Elva rose of the marigold. I sent two North of her way and sent in for the first time a grand old oaken chair a real antique that type of one. I told you I photograph him in a day or two in the mountains, he is a guest of the White Mountain (who understands her breed at the end of the lake) as Commander Fremont. She is being told magnificent tales about the Red Chipewa and Chipewa an Indian in 3018. That you? By the way, one month here would certainly get the Red Chipewa asthmatic, and then I have will have no sense crying my head over it. Good order to them both. I feel from the others that I am not such a friend as I did on the last occasion, when I went clear up the rising in the Red Chipewa. Lettuce Lamar. I suppose it will all be gone. I see them, the old man and all good men on to other things. That is no trouble with the Red Chipewa.