My dear Spencer

I hope you have been able to prevail upon Fletcher to remain at the Spar. The weather since I left you has been simply infernal & today was one of the hottest & dustiest & most disagreeable I have ever experienced - and there are no cool winds - last night I got my box of ice & although I wrapped it up carefully in a blanket this morning it was all gone. Our trip down from

The Spur was very pleasant the goals were in splendid form The Selway creature was sufficiently far off to be harmless. She did give a volley in his at as we but I was too hard of hearing that she quietly subsided. At Kalamazoo Hotel she fastened on to Penn and Leggett who sprang from the table. Looking over his shoulder for many eyes on his legs his nose maliciously bit some seats off so that the Selway had a fair single handed winning. All the Railway stars she fastened next to me with her mid engaging in David's legs that she might ride on our courage but with a body behind nothing of a show in his head we were already down on our knees

When I arrived at the open Station on Monday afternoon I was heartily greeted by from the platform by the Cross at York coming in I signed particularly good on the Saturday of State had that all the latter were booked in the next month at Hampton to visit in the Carolinas I took refuge in a carpet party to 1. Friday and Saturday - I found Selway looking splendid she had trying to make the Hospital and filed as the Hospital waited upon the Napier on the Selway staff expectations. I feel through it appears to me that I had in the only possible solution of the typically of Selway

I spent at Mr Lofley & Stoberg & I tacked until midnight Consuming more whedys than was good for either of us. He wanted me to go up again Wednesday but I couldnt manage it. In Adelaide I saw a few friends tue the evening went to the Theatre where I witnessed a fabulous outburst such as I have never before seen. Found Neph & children looking just as the latter one Ely had learnt to walk during my absence. Was standing out at the gate waiting for me - Sundays at Turners was slow although they were very kind I greatly regretted that I did not stay with you until Monday
- Tell Miss Lambert that my Neph was greatly pleased with The frocks but as she already had two or three grey's she regrets that I did not get some other colour. The embroidered stuff she is greatly in love with & of course I'm a dear good fellow.

 She was greatly impressed with my description of the garden party. Confection until yesterday when going through my pockets she dropped across the original in Miss Lambert's handwriting & then the fact was in the fire & now all her lady friend told upon me as a fraud. I tried to lie but as I lack experience in the art I merely made matters worse.
 The people here were greatly pleased with my success at Wallawa. I was met by the Secretary of the Institute who said that they are not authorized to keep his committee to wait and to respect the action of the Advisors. She then promised to do so. Please send along the typescript and I will take an early return original in to you without delay. They contain some of the information in the Come Day, where "The man" I think it is going to be a big success. I am happy to hear of the Marian's success with the songs and the choristers and teaching the children to sing. I am glad to hear of the success of the Richard's and they are to be well as in great style - Will let you know soon.

in it please do. I am enclosing Marian's account they accepted you had better send it on at once to Broadway and you'll forget all about it. I could not I regret to say, find time to find it. I could not I should that he was getting along alright. Will post Kira Urdna in a day or two when I feel sure that you are back at the University.
Please remember me to all friends particularly the rare good fellows Baracchi whom I hope to meet again some day. I shall be glad to know how long you kept Fletcher & how you got along after I left. I hope you missed
