

Moonta

31 Dec 1900

My dear Spencer

Johnston strongly recommends an Abbott baggy hooded now under offer at £35 - he describes it as strong roomy & serviceable with splendid sheets - Two others are offered at £28 & £31 respectively. Shall I see him to close or would you prefer matter to stand over until I go to Town in early in January? Of course the baggy may find a buyer in the meantime & we might have to put up with an inferior article. A really good hap such as this - with luck en route - should fetch £25 at the end of our journey perhaps more -

As your vacancy is still unfilled the air is full of rumours with regard to it. Some think Johnson will go there. Watson is now at Wallaroo & I hear his status is not to be reduced No news

I remain
Yrs
J.E.
