

Mooala - 1901?

8th January

My dear Spencer

It has been slowly dawning upon me since Field & Martin left that failing rain it might be advisable to start from the Norman end. I think it over well there are some advantages; one is that we should be out of the Territory most affected by heavy tropical rains - & where country is ~~for~~ sometimes impassable for months - before the next wet season comes round - I think
