My dear Spencer

Enclosed from old Lane today he's a real bird & I reckon his influence with the Govt has saved us about £100. To train the horses & baggage would have cost us about £~~100~~ 25 - I have promised to get you to name a legend or a frog after him but he aspires to an Alligator - which robe ambalora we must gratefully if possible J. Pluricus still hanging round in the Centre: this morning's records A G .37 Parrells Creek 1.56 Waly .90

We just want 2 inches at the Tennant to feel our cup of happiness to overflowing It'll come & when it does I'll ride to the Museum -

By the way if you don't know anything about the phonographs get - introduced into the museum I shall not have an opportunity.

Love to the Kiddies & very kind regards to Mr. Spencer Shante

Yrs ever

Paddy Cahill an old time territorial who has great knowledge of Tribes on big rivers in territory is anxious to join us & it may be advisable to employ him later on. He is strongly recommended has special knowledge of the Alligator tribes & speaks their languages
