Dear Howard,

You will see by the heading of this epistle that I am not where I ought to was — in Scotland.

Mother was not well when I ought to have started & wanted me to stay a little longer so much that I hepped off at the last moment. I wanted to know if it would be inconvenience for me to come a day or two earlier than the 1st of Sept. I want all the time for my work at home that I can possibly get before going up & so wanted to know, now that I have sent you to Scotland if I might come to you Tuesday instead of Thursday. If so could you please drop me a card & return of post. Excuse my troubling you so much only not going to Scotland has altered my plans & I thought that if it would be no inconvenience to you² I should be glad to come a day or two earlier. Please don't hesitate to say "no" if it be in the least inconvenient.

In haste Yrs I am

Waldron.

I see there is a train at 4.50 to Albi, I will come by that and it will do.
