Dear Howard

As there is nothing else to be done I'll forgive you not coming this evening + hope you are enjoying yourself at A.S. As to tomorrow I think the train you mention is a "deal" too early as that would land us at Sale whilst they were in the midst of dinner or lunch.

I want to see Leonard & I want to see Miss P. as doubtless you do but yet I and feel very anxious about songs more especially as it will stop us having hardly any time at home here before you go away as Wed. & Thurs. evenings are occupied: do manage to come if you can I will go by the train leaving Oxford Rd. at 2-15 & will meet it at either Stratford or O.T.

If you cannot come I will of course explain to Cecil but if you are not able to I will get home here by tea-time.
Mabel's been amusing us at tea - Miss Allison has been awfully crabby today.
I hope you are better:
they won't think Wholly Rouse agrees with you if you look as bad at home this evening as you did here this morning but I hope you dont. I shall hardly get to sleep tonight for want of some body to make a row. If you do happen to see Mr. Souly please remember me to him as I suppose it ~~is~~ is his birthday.

I do hope you are better.
