

what a
lovely ride you must have had to Burton
it quietly drizzled
with us all the
aft. as I walked
over to 'Udd,
much love from
Kathleen.

Saxford. (25)
Sept. 6. 92

Dear Howard

Excuse black-edged paper but it is the only kind which seems to be at hand as we are going home tomorrow & have ~~of~~ come you to the end of everything.

As to coming to A.E. if it will not put you out I should be glad to come on be Sept 22nd. I cannot well come later than that as it is only probable that I shall have to then be working with P.^d.

Marshall & if not I could not well be away from home just before going up the exact date of which I don't know but it is somewhere about the 10th. In fact I feel altogether rather in a state of uncertainty as there are some friends coming to us sometime this month (we can't say exactly when) when they are with us I must be

* I see from your note that they are coming home on the 22nd so I might perhaps come on the 23rd or the 24th if that would do.

at home: however if it ^{is} wint really inconvenient for especially in your reading I shall like to try ^{the 22nd} * for coming to A. E. I am very sorry to hear what you say about your chances for the Damtery & hope they are somewhat exaggerated: there is one comfort however & that is that if you don't get it this time you will next.

We leave here tomorrow I am glad to say. The place we parts is pretty & might perhaps have been more enjoyable

^{perhaps} I might perhaps come on the 23rd or the 24th if that would do.

had we been favoured with a little brighter weather: yesterday evenings sunset was splendid: we found out a really magnificent view over the whole of Cheshire: we could see Chester & away into Derbyshire - Flintshire - Beeston - Knutsford - Alderley - Delamere - the hills around Frodsham & Walsley & for miles away in the direction of Crewe: it was certainly very fine.

I have been very much to poor Emily & really must write to her: please remember me to your Father & Mother & to your sisters: I remember well about Mr. Blair hope they will have a very enjoyable time at his house: Shall