June 4. 85.

Dear Howard

I'm glad you so much enjoyed your Welsh trip: you must have had a grand trip in the hills. You can scarcely imagine what I would give to be really amongst mountains at the present moment.
When it is warmer here it really is Simply suffocating + today everybody has been going about gasping for breathe.

Schools are on + the great heat really kills very much against men. One feels all limp + back broken + perfectly incapable of working in any way.

I am delighted, in some way, to say that the Tomos work is practically over: this means that my own work is just about to commence.

Am beginning some special original or quasi-original work which Rau Sankar has suggested to me + the great man promised to publish it for me.

Ample seem to be getting through a good deal of work + ought to be dropping into a good pace soon.

Surrey v. the Varsity has been on to-day: I saw a little of the play. The wicket of course is perfect. But the scoring will show you how weak the Varsity are. A rather sudden change after last year.

In 10 days we shall be quite quiet here. Maxine & J. are coming up for a week. I am glad to say I shant go away till August or thereabouts. Julie Cohen comes up at the end of June. When do you actually begin -
