

FRAZER

80

Roosting & private temporary postal address :- Great Northmen Hotel Knights + London

BRITISH MUSEUM,

LONDON: W.C.1.

N.1 May 28. 1932

Dear Mr Penniman

I long wanted to thank you for endless things - ; I fancy I cannot do better than enclosing J.G.'s Glasgow Speech - ; for this I have been waiting. a few, very few copies were sent to me by J.G.'s friend:
Mr G.W. Macfarlane, who, on his own

pottering <sup>about</sup> the Notebooks

i.e. pottering means that I think of their publicatio

They can be Rotographed

i.e. first white on black.

but by a second process more

Black on white. To-day

J.G.'s special ultimate Note.

book went to the photographer will next week, gives specimen - this neither a lengthy nor costly <sup>affair</sup> - we must see what can be done - We settle at Cbge in July & till December - r... well - I doubt let the grass grow under the Seminar - nor <sup>under</sup> Notebooks nor <sup>ends</sup>

Notes ~~grow~~ ever gratefully Lilly Frige