

agree, I am advised that there would be a very great prospect of getting the line made.

Very Truly Yours.

Henry R. Fairbairn

Augst 9th 1885.

B121

NEAREST TELEGRAPH OFFICE
& STATION
BLANDFORD
6 MILES

TARRANT GUNVILLE,
BLANDFORD.

My dear General.

For a long while there has been talk of a railway from Blandford to Salisbury. The difficulties are not insurmountable.
I wonder if (under satisfactory arrangements) you would be inclined to take out the whole of the value of your land used, in shares, if the Company
could be started, with such assistance.
I am prepared to act in this way,
and should you and others also

Henry R. Fairbairn
written at my next meeting.