I have written to Campbell desiring him to name a time for seeing the stock & forwarding the accounts but the latter cannot be ready just yet as it does not end until the 31st.

There will be a great difficulty in finding demands for bottles

Dear General Pitt Rivers,

I am not well enough to go out today & the weather is bad but I will go to Bournemouth the earliest moment I can, at cannot hardly think at present I shall be able to answer.

I hope to be able to pay over about £1000 further to your account at Bournemouth on the 31st.

inst. but it depends on what means come in now in the next day or two. I never experienced so much difficulty before in getting money and I have been speaking all I can possibly in the matter & on Saturday last I made further application to all I told them positively a settlement must be made by or before the 30th, this has brought 3 today & I much hope it will have the desired effect with more during the next 3 days, I am having a statement prepared which shall show you several the payments to and for you & which shall be ready by the evening of the 31st and I will also then inform^{you} as to the means.

Your expenditure all last winter & spring was about at the same rate as before, the smaller expenditure of this autumn does

The only cottage at Shroton that my one of the name of Dell holds is one that is in hand, it formerly belonged to the family but as I have said before is now yours & the small rent of £2 a year paid for it, it is an ancient bottle but I recently gave the instructions for it to be sketched to which I will see at once if it is done.
