

my hands and I will see you as soon as I am able to do so and put out account straight, your family and my own having been friends so many years I should be very sorry to be any different on account of my views which I do not intend to give up, although I am open to conviction and willing to recant from good to something better, I am sorry I am misunderstood in the way I am, but truth will prevail.

Believe Me Sir &c.

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

Lewis Lamb called on you in consequence of my writing refusing his Brother Tom, Lewis is the youngest son of the family I think it is quite as bad as Tom, in fact he has been from home for some years in consequence of getting into trouble in some

Something else, there is a son my in a situation who is older & of better character -

I have this morning received an extraordinary letter transcribing from J. Lane of which I enclose a copy, we must now wait and see if he makes himself his Sister's legal representative by taking out letters of Administration & if he should do so he must then have notice to quit.

Yours

Sir.

In reply to yours,
I am my sister's legal Representative my dear Brother having given it up so
