Sturminster Newton,

Dorset 18th July 1887

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

To-morrow (Wednesday) is my short-cut-day and I must be home at any rate in the morning, so in addition to the many usual calls on that day I have a chapman coming here as to one of the Cheselbourne Farms & I also am to see Mr Doyers of Arthur in reference to his Farm so he fears he cannot go in with it, I propose therefore to go to Dunmore early on Thursday morning & call on you first & then go over the Strath with Mr Campbell afterwards, of course if it is more convenient to you to see me to morrow I can leave here after at half past 12 & reach Dunmore about half past two o'clock on getting a telegram to this effect.

I remain

Yours very obedt. Servant

Alfred
