

To Major Genl Pitt Rivers

St sent 11. Mar. 87

to Mr. Symonds

Cochester

Feb 14th 1887.

Sir,

Path & Desk of England Society's meeting at Cochester 1887.

We have been requested by the Committee appointed to make the necessary arrangements for the reception of the above Society at Cochester next summer to make an appeal for further contributions towards defraying the local expenses connected with the meeting.

We enclose herewith for your information an copy of the List of Subscriptions already promised, as published in the Cassock County Chronicle on the 8th ult<sup>o</sup>, and trust you will excuse our drawing your attention to the note appended thereto, and expressing our earnest hope that you will kindly assist the Committee in their efforts to obtain the amount necessary to secure the success of the meeting, and to welcome the Society in a way worthy of the County generally.
