Sturminster Newton,

Dorset 25th March 1887

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

The sum I pay ^{annually} of bene on your behalf is £ 126 - 5 - 0 of this amount

£ 70 forms a voluntary contribution.

In addition to this Mr. G. gets some assistance from Lady Ann's Bony & is also chaplain to the Inn, altogether his income is about £200 with a residence.

I should also have said in addition to the £70 he holds a grass field of about 4 acres + worth about £10 a year but for which he only pays you £1.

I remain

Yours very obedt. Servant

W. Steech
