Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

I returned from Bournemouth on Friday but as I did not hear from you & presume you had had not returned to Dorchester, I am sorry to say I caught a slight chill whilst en route and have been obliged to stay in on Saturday & yesterday but as I had fixed to be here to-day & to-morrow I had to leave early this morning & I hope to be all right again in a day or two.

I have to go to the theatre and London this week but in hearing that you are at Inverness I will arrange for going there one day. I remain

Your best servant

Alfred
