

him to write stating the arrangement is now for a month's notice -

Mr Oxford is coming to the Office to-morrow to have a further conversation as to the Sum -

I find I was at Amstercam on 24 days during last year & which occupied one month's working days -

I will try and ascertain to-morrow from the collector Harvey's intentions, but he does not go out during the winter time, and I will write again.

I remain

Yours very obedt Servt

Dorset. 27th Jan'y 1888.

Dear General Pitt Rivers,

I think myself that it is not correct that Mr Atkiss has only mentioned the matter to his Brother and Mr Green as I have heard of it from another quarter but I intend to further talk the matter over with him when I see him, the Sum is made up as follows (viz) ^{4 2 h} Hornsteadote 6. 1. 5

Merchandise	192	3	30
Iron Fasteners	128	2	9
Sheep Fasteners and Nails	691	1	1
Crab	344	0	2
Woods	233	3	36
Total	1597	0	3

For certain the great bulk or nearly the whole of the Iron Fasteners are Conservatives, amongst the Irons of the Stoves (viz), small Irons and Labours there are of course a large proportion of Radicals, the Conservative lecture or meeting is not yet announced the chair will be taken by the Chairman or one of the members of the Conservative Association, I am strongly of opinion that it is better to take no further notice of the particular meeting of the Radicals held last week.

I left the monthly returns with Mr Campbell to enable him to make out the account you required, I have desired him to take the same to you to-morrow and I have also asked
