

Chap. Amour -

Mr Green has forwarded us your his report as to the branch at Exeter & his figures are just about the sum I named.

I address this to London but Mr Green informed me last Wednesday he thought expected to meet you at Exeter but I find such was not the case.

Yours

J. J. Chydenal for last year was your very obedt. Servant sent up on the 1st of July to Mr. James

Sturminster Newton,

Dorset 1st July - 1888

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

I beg to forward you a formal report as to repairs to be be executed, the a river bank to hold 100 hogheads for the bottles on the still at Exeter would cost £50, should you decide to have it done.

I am preparing for the audits and have arranged for them to commences on the 23rd which is 10 days earlier than last year and the remittance to Messrs. Paine will therefore be earlier, I much hope the weather will at once alter or if not? I fear it will much interfere with the payments by the Dramto, it is quite heartless to see the large quantities of Otago spirit rotting and spoiling as we have only had 3 fine days for nearly a month now, Sam is also now badly wanted for the corn and in fact everything and if we do not get it at once much further damage will be done -

Mr. Hawkey. It was that he has taken will I want to be ready for him the first week in next month month & when he intends to commence to move -

I am expecting to receive a sum in a few days which will enable me to remit £500 at once to
