

At Dorchester Sturminster Newton,

B294

Dorset 28th July 1888.

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

Considering the wretched weather the audits are going on fairly well & I shall on Monday forward the sum of £2,500 to your account at Messrs. Rowson's.

I have to-day seen Mr. Pile and had a long conversation with him as to his letter and which I will report to you in a few days.

Truine

Your very obedt. servant

Alfred
