

going to summon them and I have heard that this has been the case again a day or two ago but I will enquire fully into the matter.

I remain

Your very obedt. Servant

Alfred

(B 322)

Sturminster Newton,

Dorset 4th Febry 1889

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

Mr L. L. Graves who wrote to you is a Tailor & Draper here & likes interfering in other Peoples business, he is the man who some few years ago advised the Allotment Committee ^{here} not to pay unless they had their rents advanced lowered.

It is correct I think that Lord Sturbridge intends to pull down the old House at Boyber which is in a very bad state and put up a new small Farm House suitable for the Farm and I suppose he would not very well like to be interfered with in the matter -

There must be some mistake about the shooting at Diddlewood as Mr. Connor rents this and you will recollect you wrote yourself to Mr. C. a short time since telling him he could continue it for another Season, for certainly nothing has occurred there -

You will recollect that Col.
Phedon has some shooting on the Hill at Sturston belonging to the Estate which is given him that last year he was had some unpleasantness with the Servants here respecting the Rabbits & was
