best oil, made of best yellow deal

For the Sum of Fourteen pound, ten Shillings (£14.10.)

Note.

We take the liberty of recommending a wire netting to cover the Skylight, to prevent future breakage.
We also note that from roof of back addition 4 lengths of Rain water pipe are split lengthways and the water running down the walls.
There is another lower Skylight that has 3 cracked squares of glass in it, we simply name this so that you may know that they are not broken by our men, we think we can make the same water-tight.

Dear Sir,

We assume that the enclosed account which has been outstanding since May last year must have escaped your notice.
May we respectfully beg you to favour us with a remittance for the same at your early convenience?

We are, Dear Sir,

(B32f) 24 June 1898

Dear Sir,

We regret exceedingly that we have unintentionally rendered you an account which has evidently been paid, and offer you the fullest apology for having caused you any trouble or annoyance.

From our explanation you will see that we are the victims of unfortunate circumstances. Our late manager died suddenly a few days ago and upon investigating our Books we discovered a number of irregularities and it is very evident that your account adds another item to the list of monies unaccounted for. The cheque, we find with the assistance of your letter, was indeed passed through our Bank, but your account was not credited with it and we are the losers of the amount.

We can only again express our regret at being compelled to write to you, but no other course was open to us and we venture to hope that you will continue to favour us with your commands which will have, as hitherto, our best attention.

We are, Dear Sir,

Your obedient servants,

June 25th, 1898.

The English Window Cleaning Co.,

In reply to your communication of the 23rd inst., sending in a bill already paid for supplying and fixing new Iron Ladders at No. 4 Grosvenor Gardens, I beg to inform you that the bill in question amounting to £28 was paid and the receipt given for it by you on Feb. 25, 1898. I have also the counter-foil of the cheque dated Dec. 31, 1897, and the acknowledgement of it in my pass book on Feb. 26, 1898. I shall be obliged to you to make thorough inquiry of the cause of such an extraordinary occurrence and to send me a proper apology for it.

Yours

A, Pitt-Rivers.
