Sir Referring to your letter of the 26th Aug<sup>r</sup> 1887
instructing us to pay the drafts of Mr Douglas Fox Pitt from your account to the extent of £37.10.- quarterly, we regret that the drafts hitherto drawn in virtue of this credit have been, through an inadvertence, placed to Mr. Fox Pitt's own account, which is consequently overdrawn to the amount of £64.15.3

Gentlemen In reply to your letter of the 7th Nov I cannot trace having ever received the letter with the power of attorney for Dividend on 357. 6. 9 late reduced 3rd Stock. I received a power of attorney for other sums consequent on the change in your firm and returns it signed but I presume is a different matter. I also received the enclosed power of attorney which I believe has not signed because it had already been signed and the matter as I understood settled. I remember

W. Geo. Sichelville Lane for signing something

but cannot remember the circumstances

LONDON. S.W.

24 April 1897

Sir,

We beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of yesterday's date, and much regret that our advice of the payment to your account of £1000, by Mr. Creech, which was duly posted on the 12th Instant, was inadvertently addressed to your former residence, No 4 Grosvenor Gardens, and we have taken steps to prevent any letters for you being sent to that address in future.

We are, Sir,
Your obed<sup>t</sup>. servants,
FOR BARCLAY & COMPANY, LIMITED.

J.P. [Signature]

This payment being by a country cheque would not appear in your account till the 15th or about in our letter of the 22nd Instant. as it would take time to clear.
