Dear Sir

I regret to inform you that a cheque of yours to Messrs Alexander & Cherry £22:--:7 which we received from the payees for their credit has been mislaid or destroyed. It is entered in our Books as having been remitted to our London Agents Messrs City Co on the 6th inst.

but they write me that it has not reached them, and altho a diligent search has been made for it, it is not forthcoming.

I have written to Messrs Barclay & Co on the subject, but may I trouble you to write them also to stop payment of it -

If in the course of a few days the cheque is not recovered, would you kindly send me a duplicate for which I will indemnify you from all loss. Apologising for troubling
you. I am Sir

Your obedient Servant
A. H. Baker,

Station:-Tisbury, L. & S.W.R.

Rushmore,

Salisbury.

Oct. 30th, 1891.

Messrs. Partridge & Cooper,

General Pitt Rivers will be obliged to you to make him 3 "Index to Cheques" Books, like those with which you have supplied him before.

Directions:-

- (1). Outside measurement of book, $16\frac{1}{2}$ inches by $12\frac{1}{4}$ inches.
 - (2). All the letters in the Alphabet are to be included, and two sheets (4 pages) of paper are to be allotted to each letter.
 - (3). Pale blue foolscap paper to be used.
 - (4). Each page is to be ruled with 34 faint horizontal lines.
 - (5). Each page is to be ruled with red ink perpendicular lines, as shown on the enclosed sheet.
- It will be seen that there are 10 columns.

When one book is made, please send it, in order that I may see that it is right, before the others are commenced.

Let me know if there is anything you do not understand. I cannot send a book as a pattern, because we are constantly using them.

Yours obediently,
Harold Gray.
